

Who is this course for?

Owner/Operators who must make elegant control programs from scratch.

Prerequisites:

- EIK-206 or FTE-206 (Field Tech Essentials)
- A working understanding of HVAC controls
- A minimum of 9 months working with the WebCTRL Applications Suite.

Objectives:

After successfully completing this course, you will be able to:

- Use programming and naming standards
- Create a symbol library
- Use Eikon productivity tools
- Build a properties page
- Make major edits to an existing control program
- Create an advanced control program with a custom sequence of operations

For more information about the course outline, click the course outline button for a downloadable pdf